The Ionia Collection

Our Legacy

Carpets of Kashmir is a third-generation company headquartered in Mumbai, India. We are manufacturers, retailers, exporters, and wholesalers of exquisite handmade carpets and rugs that are made across our various workshops in North India.

One of our key area of specialization is manufacturing bespoke, custom-made rugs that are created in collaboration with artists and designers from diverse verticals like, textiles, architecture, furniture, décor, sculpture, and even music! We can custom-make rugs in any design, colors, size, materials, and quality, as per your specific requirements.

We've a ready inventory of over 2000 rugs in diverse sizes, colors, designs, styles, construction variations, and materials such as Highland Kashmir wool, New Zealand wool, mulberry silk (natural cocoon silk), viscose (artificial silk), and tencel or bamboo silk (both are organic silks).

The range of our products is endless.

The Ionia Collection

Introducing Ionia Collection of hand-knotted rugs!

Inspired by the ancient city of Ionia, famous for its rich history and vibrant culture, this collection showcases luxurious and hand-picked organic materials and intricate designs that capture the essence of this legendary region.

Each rug in the Ionia Collection is meticulously hand-crafted by skilled artisans using traditional techniques passed down through generations. The result is a stunning array of rugs that celebrate the beauty and craftsmanship of hand-knotted textiles.

From classic Persian motifs to contemporary geometrics, the Ionia Collection offers a wide range of styles to complement any decor. Whether you want to add elegance to your living room or make a statement in your dining room, these rugs will bring warmth and sophistication to any space.

Visit our showroom to see these exquisite hand-knotted rugs in person and experience the timeless beauty of Ionia!
